The food was delicious as always but this time the customer service was better. The young man at the service counter was extremely patient and kind. I do not remember his name but I believe he had gold teeth. Young man, you made both my daughter and my day by your conversation with a homeless man. God Bless You! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Five Guys:

on the line. the service was slow. it wasn't so busy. the estimated time was about 8 minutes per website. in 25 minutes. do not order them ready yet. there is no parking space to park. I was a passion for happiness. back to the hotel to find my order completely wrong. there was no speck and there was a cheese (what I allergic to). the restaurant called and was hanged 4 times. now they are closed, I have no dinner and...
