Always like to come to City Mex for a good lunch and believe it or not; very hospitable staff, considering that this is a fast victim. The experience with the cash register is always good, they do not hurry and they all seem to work together well. The food is always fresh and tasteful. The soups are good, although for some reason the few times

I ordered soup it always came warm, but never hot, this can be fixed as th... read more.
