The restaurant from Costa Mesa offers 17 different meals and drinks on the menu at an average $8.9. What Ellen K likes about Fusion Sushi:

I heard about this place from one of my friends who is a sushi lover. Now this is my favorite place, and I absolutely recommend this if you want to eat authentic sushi. The owner knows what sushi is. He is so professional and never disappointed me. All the sushi and sashimi are so fresh and yummy. I ordered special ones for my family and kids, and they made wonderful plates. I recommend special from the owner and the... read more. You can use the WLAN of the establishment free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Dave doesn't like about Fusion Sushi:

Really not sure how this place got so many positive reviews unless I had it on an off day. The sashimi was really not good...cuts were sloppy and too thin, for some reason most of it was way too chewy (either the pieces of fish were bad or the chef possibly cut it against the grain), and the tuna pretty much disintegrated in the chopsticks as if it had just come out of the freezer. I could barely eat some of it with how... read more. With a lot of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, the Fusion Sushi from Costa Mesa prepares healthy, tasty Japanese meals, among the specialties of this establishment are particularly the Sashimi and Inside-Out. You have a festival and want to enjoy the food at your place? With the in-house catering service, that's easily doable, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes.
