Stop at Velvet before dinner. It seems to be two bars inside, one up and one down. The mood is elevated Bend and at the same time cozy. The bartenders were professional and friendly. The night we were there, there was a problem with the cash register. The guys treated it smoothly and continued to make drinks to keep the line moving. We ordered a whiskey sour and a blueberry smash. They were both handsome and tasty. W... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is complimentary WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about Velvet:

Katie and I don't mind a packed-to-the-rafters club, but when it takes 26 minutes to get a dirty Martini and a whiskey sour we have to draw the line. Not a good venue if you're in a wheelchair, but Velvet did make some creative design choices for packing the house without it feeling like you're suffocating. The bouncer, by the way, was classy and had a great sense of humor. As for the Croatian couple we met tonight,... read more. The catering service is also provided by the establishment for its visitors, Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially extensive variety of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try. Similarly, the restaurant serves a large assortment of spicy tapas, which are certainly worth a taste, You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
