We stayed a week at Fairfield Inn right behind Panera. We ate in Panera a few times and they were on the spot.

The children loved the pizza, the adults loved half the combination. My favourite is the tomato soup and the cream of the broccoli soup. The Mac and the cheese were great. The staff was very friendly and worked well under pressure as they were busy all the time. We didn't have to wait long for our order. A read more. You can at Panera Bread from Anaheim try delicious vegetarian menus, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast. As a rule, most courses are prepared quickly for you and served, and you can try fine American menus like Burger or Barbecue.
