We went for Sunday brunch. I had the salmon over grottos, my daughter had the Avo Toast of Mary, my son had the foundations with sausage. The woman just had fruit. The fruit was fresh and plentiful, the salmon over the geese was very good, beautiful quality cut of salmon, pepper shakers. Avo Toast was well flavored and also had fruits with him. Super busy time, but the staff was great and the atmosphere was very help... read more. For a 100$ it wasn't really all that great. It was pretty disappointing. The food was bland. The only thing, the place had going for it was the Lobster Wontons tonight. I just feel the food could have been better by a lot. There was at least two other customer tables that we witnessed complain about their food not being worth it either. The place seemed promising, but honestly, it's hard to find good Asian restaurant... read more.
