The farm was a wonderful place to eat for a bite. I have often eaten there with many different things on the menu. This last time was the pig-taloin sandwich, which is absolutely delicious. Although Brunswick Missouri is a small town, the railway stations are excellent food for everyone to come and eat. You have lots of specials and steaks and other things to enjoy, so if you get time, I highly recommend stopping an... read more. What User doesn't like about The Railyard Steak House:

Our service was 3 out of 5. The waitress didn't come check? on us until we were pretty much done. When we walked in the price of the ribeye was advertised on the board way lower than what we were actually charged. (Granted...the menu says market price The baked potato wasn't even warm enough to melt the butter. read more.
