Not that anyone was rude but to be honest I just didn't get the customer service I like to receive. To be fair I was a server/waitress for 15yrs. and my husband tells me my expectations of service are higher than most. Overall our needs we're met in a timely manner and the food came out pretty fast and was tasty. If the staff had been a little more friendly it would have made a big difference. read more. this chili is very good for the biggest part as long as it is during the weekday. I have penetrated, done and delivered. it is in the regular weathering when it is swamped or when christian is managed and the well oiled machine turns into chaos in crazy waiting times for easy picks with little to no help from the administration. I suggest going during the day shift in the week to avoid these problems! read more.
