The first time I had eaten here, I chose and a friend here because we believed to bring dogs. When sitting on deck, waitress came out, but didn't even go to another table looking in our direction, yet recognizing that our being went back then. We went to the bar to order, and when we waited, the owner came to welcome us by telling us that the food would be brought to us, from this point on our waitress was very frien... read more. The food was pretty good, so we always tried, but after the last visit we will never go back. The staff is so rude. We had order problems, forgotten items, falsely accused, terrible rude service. Very disappointed with this place. read more.
