The titular dishes, tortas, are excellent, and aptly described by 'barrio' style. The atmosphere also feels cozy and quaint; as if it were established many years ago and passed down the generations. Tortas are sandwiches, not cake, as Google Translate and your high school Spanish teacher Señor Richards would have you believe. The bread used is bolillo, which I'm not sure has an English translation. The me... read more. What

User doesn't like about Super Tortas Estilo Barrio:

Absolutely love their sandwiches. I had the California and it was amazing! The Acapulco is incredible too! They have a super torta for those who dare to brave a humongous sandwich with everything in the world on it! It looks absolutely delicious and people say that it's amazing I've had it a long time ago and I can only finish about half.

The prices are absolutely incredible too sandwiches are around $10 and honestly... read more. With the large variety of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Super Tortas Estilo Barrio becomes even more attractive. The fine sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks can be planned well as a snack. Even the versatile, delicious Mexican cuisine, traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chili, is very popular with the customers.
