I love going to American legions in small cities! Everyone is welcoming and respectful. We were there between hockey games, so we didn't have much time to eat the first visit. Excellent beer selection and must watch some sports on their TVs. When we stopped the second time, we had time for food. Really creative menu items named after military branches. It was busy, so the food took a while, but it was hot when we got... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. WLAN is available free of charge. What User doesn't like about Buffalo American Legion Post 270:

It used to be a great place to go. The food was great before. The service is really shit. I've lived here for many years and we always like to go there, but the woman doesn't say anymore. We had to get our own drinks and had to wait for tickets for fish frits, although we were there three hours early. My 75-year-old mother-in-law was turned off for her soda. They told her she had to go to the other side. She waited f... read more. The restaurant also offers its customers a catering service, In the morning they serve a extensive breakfast here. Furthermore, you can order fresh roasted barbecue, You'll find nice South American cuisine also on the menu.
