The burgers are nothing to write home about but the ice cream is a time capsule from much simpler (and better) times. My usual go-to is a Cherry Bonnet with vanilla (a classic) and for a change of pace a strawberry sundae with chocolate soft-serve ice cream. The strawberry's are drowning in a sweet goo that may, in fact, not exist in nature. I'll take my chances. Five quality stars for the treats however, one deducti... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Dairy Queen Grill Chill:

they have a sign, no emotional support dogs. I was even told that other queen dairy have dog ice cream. I tried to call them several times while seeing if he can come or drive through, but they do not answer the phone after several call. I just wanted ice cream since I had eaten there every time, it was followed several hours on the toilet. I would suggest to them to avoid eating at all, unless they have no sense, th...
