I found Whataburger in the Tunnel. It lived up to the companies standards. The team was nice. It was clean. I had a Jalapeño burger combo with Sweet Tea. It all tasted great. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Whataburger:

The food here is above-average but definitely not worth the horrendous customer service and employees' attitudes. They get stressed, annoyed, and bitter when you make simple demands for the order like plain and dry or just sauteed onions please. The workers act as if you are doing them a favor. I would never go back or recommend any of my clients to go here. Not worth the stress for slightly above average fast food. read more. If you're in a rush, you can get fine Fast-Food dishes just the way you like it from Whataburger in Houston, freshly prepared for you in short time, Of course, you also have to try the tasty burgers, that come with sides like fries, salads, or wedges served. In this restaurant there is also an comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, Moreover, there are some international menus to choose from in the menu.
