Came in early Saturday evening. Was craving tamales but they were out. Decided on the chile rellenos instead. OMG! The best non crispy authentic I have had in Denver. You get two large rellenos, rice and beans and 2 large homemade tortillas (choice of flour or corn and I chose flour). The staff is very friendly, and bilingual. Service is on point. Sodas are super cold. They have an amazing assortment of pastries but... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WiFi. What User doesn't like about El Alamo:

Food is great would not recommend using the online service. I ordered and paid online and the woman had no idea what I was talking about. Still got my food that I paid for thankfully read more. Get excited about the diverse, tasty Mexican cuisine, which is traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers).
