on our trip through florida we decided to go here for a relaxed dinner. we were not disappointed. delicious food, friendly staff. if I had lived in the opposite, we would be descendants. I bought ruck marinade instead. we had kuhknochensuppe, grilled fish and garnel pasta. from suppe to seasoned rice the fish and pasta sauce was all delicious. read more. What User doesn't like about Taste Of The Islands:

It was early morning, the sign showed they were open. This is a restaurant on one side and a open store on the other. They were just putting food on warmers, I asked if the food was fresh. The elderly lady said yes but it was clear this was food from the day before. I order a jerk patty which was a bit spicy for me and a drink. She took the patty out the warmer I felt it and asked that it be warmed up. The patty was... read more.
