You take credit cards and cash! Can't become more authentic than this place. Friendly staff, clean place. TV was a little annoying for me, too loud. ordered a few pupusas, a pig (not much taste) and a beans and cheese (very good). The Pupusa are light and thin with the perfect filling quantity. Also ordered fried curtains, they are served with beans and acid cream. The Horchata tasted like it was made of powder. It w... read more. What User doesn't like about El Salvadoreno Pupuseria:

Pupusas are not seasoned, no taste. They have music way too loud, as loud as a night club or more, when I go to a restaurant I go for a good experience enjoying my food not so loud music that is not even my type, we even asked if they could lower it and we were told yes but we were just ignored.
