What User likes about Shake Shack First National Building Downtown Detroit:

I was informed by the lovely manager that the location is seasonal, not opened during the winter. These photos and this information will apply to the summer of 2022. The sweet ladies (who agreed to be in the photo) cooking, making shakes, and taking orders were all super friendly and helpful. They got our food to us quickly even with us being a larger group. Food was good and didn't make anyone feel ill, which after... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Shake Shack First National Building Downtown Detroit:

I am a traveler staying a few nights in Monticello, Utah. There are only a few restaurant choices in this small town. The hotel staff recommended Shake Shack. I went there and ordered a bacon cheeseburger, onion rings, and a peach shake. The counter clerk was pleasant and my food tasty. While I was eating my meal there was a shift change. Most of the staff appear to be high school students. Before I left I ordered a... read more.
