This is my favorite go to place for some of the best food we have in our area. I've had many orders put in here for catering and have loved everything that they make. And my guests always tell me how much they love her food and I've shared with them my information. So many people tell me they go there for the catered food and just to have a meal. read more. What User doesn't like about My Uncle's Place:

Calculate over a dollar per item when ordered togo. An 8-10in Philly cheese steak with frits and mushrooms added as it was the special of the night, along with a dozen wings... and paid over 34 dollars after taxes and togo fees. Food was okay, but the prices will prevent me from ever returning. There are three other food places sick order the same items from within 100 yards from now on. Sad, because the honey mustar...
