It is surprisingly difficult to find good BBQ in the area of Houston because it requires good sauce, good brisket, good sausage, good coke avalanche, good potato salad and good bread. This place has everything except bread (it is just simple white bread as so many places in Houston more places need to think Texas Toast and not served pure cold white bread). Besides the pure white bread, everything is great BBQ. read more. What User doesn't like about Midway Bbq:

With all these people who take orders and they forget our pages: roasted okra, French french fries, potatoes. No one disturbed the review of our order if we had everything before we handed it over to us. Should we? The people from work ordered from this place to lunch and they also screwed their orders.
