Remembered my grandmother's kitchen in Youngstown Oh. I would spend summer there and they and I would make about 30 pizzas to keep me in the summer so much fun, and I learned a lot about pizza, she was from Naples, the birthplace of pizza, so she knew what she did. When I went to Bizarro for the first time, all these memories came back, and this is the best compliment I could give to every restaurant. The food, the a... read more. What User doesn't like about Bizzarro Pizza Of Merritt Island:

We had pizza here and it was always great. The first time you have a pasta dish and eat. Just terrible first of the Kalamari was tasteless. I was served 10 minutes before my meal. He had to remind the server of the garlic knots and when he got them where it was freezing. It wasn't like they were busy, it was 5 pm. What a great disappointment and a waste of money.
