I can't tell you how much I missed this place because I'm not the area. Nice to be back. Everything is ala carte, but the food is consistently delicious! Customer service is also good, just forget to bring cash. You have an ATM only in case. There are also a few benches outside, covered by the shade of large parasols and the parking is a decent size. Not sure what I will try next time, so feel free to comment with yo... read more. What User doesn't like about Valley Farm Drive-in:

The food is always pretty good, never had a problem here until they hired the new girl, shes rude, doesn't get your order correct even after repeating my order 3 times just to make sure, it's hard finding good help these days, but u guys struck out with this new hire, hopefully my visits will be on her day off, UPDATE.. when paying at the register, I happened to look down on the floor to see a dirty tampon on the floo...
