Customer service was great, especially Gabbie. The food was hot, made to order and tasted good. You order a noodle dish, you can add a protein or whatever you want, they give you and bring it to your table that came very fast. Only what I didn't like was the straws too much as a toilet paper roll. Total good place if you like noodles.

The rice crispy was well made to... fresh. read more. What User doesn't like about Noodles And Company: Noodles and Company itself is a fun, semi-healthy and unique alternative between fast-food and full sit down dining. This particular location had decent quick service, great outdoor seating and easy access. The downfalls were the staff and cleanliness. Both are most likely related to each other. It would be unfair to classify it as unfriendly but the employees just weren't focused on customer service. Tables weren't... read more.
