Today we returned for the second time for Brunch, it started great with the host who calls before we arrived there to confirm our reservation and check whether we have a high chair for our 2 years old. When we came there, the hostess was great and we sat right away. When our waiter came the first thing he did was our 2 years old 's fork,

I asked him why and he said good, she is under 5 , I said, but she still has to... read more.
