Tantalizing array of huge soft cookies, including separately packed gluten-free, as well as ice cream, to make sandwiches and the ability to order modest custom. It made a great afternoon deal and we went with some later. If you do not eat them immediately, make sure that you are careful with them as they do not travel well because they are so amazingly soft. The staff was very friendly the afternoon we arrived and w... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Mary's Mountain Cookies:

Usually a great place, but don't offer great plates deals that you can't handle... went in with my kid and was going to get one for my other kid and was told I could only get one. Cashier didn't seem to get that there were two of us standing there and we only got one of the Great plates deals. Confusing and annoying experience since we drove from Loveland specifically get this for the kids. read more.
