What User likes about Stillwaters: This place is a bit off the beaten path, but they make above average food for the area. They are one of the few places that still serve Pork Tenderloin sandwiches, which are great! Their walleye has always been very good, both the sandwiches and the dinner entree. Thursday and Saturday nights are Karaoke nights, and these are a lot of fun. Even if you're not a regular, you can get a chance to sing 3 or 4 songs each n... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Stillwaters:

Food is very good and a bit pricey. Menu is confusing. It says all you care to eat; allow extra time for bake fish. I ordered all you can eat baked fish and was told when I used for another piece, only the fried fish was AYCE. Why would that make difference. Why not change your damn menu and don't be so rude about it when questioned. Lots of nicer people to eat fish with. See attached menu. read more.
