Had a great time here. We live just outside of Galveston, and this was my first time eating at a Golden Chick.

Debra, the manager, was great. She had us laughing and joking. She even let me try a piece of the roasted chicken, since I had never been there. The staff was helpful and the kitchen was clean. All of this, and they only had a couple of hours till closing, on a Friday night. So kudos to the Friday night shif... read more. What a disappointment. To begin with, I verified they had wifi before ordering. So, I ordered a salad, okra and drink. I went to use the bathroom before my food came but the toilet was clogged with paper towels. When I tried to connect to their guest wifi, it needed a password. I asked for it but they didn't know it and asked me to wait.

When my food arrived, everything looked fine. The salad looked crisp and fresh b... read more.
