Great Filipino style of cooking and excellent customer service from the moment you enter this Pinoy spot in Dallas, Texas up to the time you're on your way to leave this clean and very accomodating place where you really remember the Pinoy dishes you have been accustomed back home in the Philippines! Keep up the good work! read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is complimentary WiFi. What Bettina Agbulos doesn't like about Inihaw Avenue Filipino Kitchen:

First time we ever ate at this restaurant was an amazing experience even when it was during the high peak of Covid time. We decided to go back and have those food again. Was very very disappointed of how salty and oily the food got. The fish looked like it was cooked and heated on a microwave, beef soup was so salty I taste the soy sauce more, the lumpia was fishy, sisig was just oily. Totally not worth driving an ho...
