Nice looking building, efficient service, clean counters and tables. Other than that, I just wasn't wowed. I wanted to love my meal, but I felt that the light and crispy chicken tenders were small and plain tasting, although the sauce was more tasty. The fries could have been bought in a bag from the freezer section in a grocery store and were soggy not crunchy like how I enjoy them, but at least they weren't too ove... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. What Anthony doesn't like about Raising Cane's Chicken Fingers:

One of the items we ordered was not delivered. However, reaching out to the driver they said they delivered 3 items when there were only 2. When I told the driver he only delivered 2 he said it was not his problem and to call the restaurant. To me that is bad customer service. He could have at least said he was sorry but he did not. This makes me wonder did he take our food by the way he reacted. Why would I tip some... read more.
