Help us by making available the menu here. What User likes about 'dashery Cafe At The Revival: A very nice experience. Food was very good, not mind blowing. Service was also very good. The price points are reasonable. Overall, a good experience if you're looking for a quality dinner that's in the $40-$60 per person range. If you have time before your reservation (after 7pm), go to B-Side, the speakeasy. That experience was phenomenal. Drinks are pricey, but the ambiance and the service were outstanding. What User doesn't like about 'dashery Cafe At The Revival: The service was really terrible. We were one of only a few tables. The food took over an hour and was not hot. The waitress kept forgetting our drinks. It took 20mins to get a beer, we were too afraid to order a second cocktail because of how long it would take. Honestly prob one of the worst service experiences I've had in a long time. Would definitely keep me from recommending and I've been several times before wit... read more.
