Great ambiance with a view of the beautiful LA Library, wonderful attentive but not overbearing service and great food. The wine menu as too pricey: nothing less than per glass for a white wine, with no California wine choices.

Cafe Pinot still remains one of our post Matinee choices. Great overall experience read more. What User doesn't like about Cafe Pinot:

I've been in Cafe Pinot for many years. It is always a pleasant experience. The food is excellent, the service perfect, and the atmosphere wonderful. The ambience on the terrace is difficult to improve. Although I hadn't been there for more than a year, I was welcomed and welcomed as a family. The waitress remembered me. There are many new restaurants in DTLA, but this place is still worth mentioning. And a visit! read more. Cafe
