Visited twice same cashier. He seemed like he hated his job and people just was extremely rude to other customers. The cook made up for his poor customer service. The cook was pilot and friendly. Made a difference management should re-evaluate who is representing their place of business. read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Five Guys:

very unprofessional! camera can show when she threw the order and not even the bag properly sealed, how crazy she was she spoke during the preparation of the order that took her sweet time, the burger sat there for a dae and also she didn't want to give me her name but frankly it was the worse customer service!
