We had a reservation and sat right away. During the Frederick Restaurant Week so there was a special fixed price menu in addition to the regular menu. I ordered from the fixed price menu and my husband ordered from the regular menu. Both meals were very good. My lamb dogs were doing something about them, but still tasty. The beds and strawberry tarts were amazing. The deconstructed lemon balm was wonderful. My husband... read more. What User doesn't like about Family Meal:

Duck fat fries were wonderful as always! French onion soup ordered and was very disappointed. Many short rib in it (which was good) but the broth was very weak and had almost no taste. Expects much more taste and/or larger portion for $9.99. Chicken and waffle was also a mixture of good and bad. Waffle was excellent, but chicken was well cooked and bread was dark and bitter. I picked it up and the chicken inside. The... read more.
