we love José cantina! we come here several times during our trip. this trip we had Heather as a waitress and in the last few years we had them some paints. she was so sweet and patient with our great family. I ordered the chicken Fajita burrito and it was the best I ever had. when they get a chance, they visit them! read more. We always stop by here when in the Smokies. Dropped by on Sunday night. Was told there was a 20 minute wait. No problem. Was called up within 5 minutes. Waitress seemed to be nice and took our order as we had already made up our minds while waiting. Chips on table were greasy and salsa was watered down. After about 20 minutes we were given another basket of greasy chips. I asked about our food? Waitress asked again w... read more.
