Ava Roasteria Progress Ridge:

my favourite place in the whole city. it is so beautiful next to the small (stocked) manmade (but nice little) see. with a great outdoor marble and a beautiful fountain can play children next to it, it is a total destination at the weekend! I love that everything is wheelchair-friendly, even the lake and I often bring my father there because there is something to do if they have to wait for their reservation also on... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Ava Roasteria Progress Ridge:

I'm disappointed and never try again. unfortunately not a friendly place to have a coffee with her baby. it's like a library that looked at you and at two places they just kicked us out? they are common for children and cannot tolerate them. I never had this experience in any other place. Toducks is always inviting for all customers, but here they choose! so please, if they stay children away from here if they don't... read more. A visit to Ava Roasteria Progress Ridge becomes even more rewarding due to the large range of coffee and tea specialties.
