It's hard to find a bad slopper in Pueblo, and there is nothing wrong with the one at AJ's. The green chili was quite good. The Philly cheesesteak was just okay, but that's because it was ordered with turkey instead of beef. Food: 4/5 read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What Karianne Fay doesn't like about Aj's At Walking Stick:

The food's actually pretty bad compared to other courses in Pueblo. It's okay enough to eat wash it down and lift your favorite beer but it is not a place I would actually go to my way to eat. Wait staff is always really nice and friendly and atmosphere is actually pretty good as well lot of older golfers sharing stories Food: 2/5 read more. At Aj's At Walking Stick in Pueblo, you get a abundant brunch in the morning and you can eat as much as you want feast, A catering service offered by the restaurant allows you to eat the meals on-site or at the party. There are also scrumptious American menus, for example, burgers and grilled meat, They also present tasty South American menus to you on the menu.
