Compared to other bakeries in the area, cupcakes and cakes are moderately priced, taste decent and are appealing to look at. I do think the flavors lack creativity and there is way too much sugar. But the effort that goes into the visual appearance makes up for it I guess. If I'm ever in a pinch to buy something for a friend's birthday that I forgot, Nadia Cakes is my go to spot. read more. What Maggie A doesn't like about Nadia Cakes: I love Nadia cake's gluten friendly options! I have been getting them for quite awhile now. However, over the past few trips over the months one thing I have noticed is that the vanilla frosting for cupcakes has been very buttery. I tried my boyfriends regular cupcake frosting and we both thought those ones were very buttery as well. We ended up scraping off the frosting and enjoying the cake. Hopefully that gets adj...
