I love this place absolutely. The outdoor area is beautiful (although it fills quickly). The beer and wine selection is great and the owners/employers are always nice. Organized operations, clean and great prices! Can't wait for them to bite again (if they ever do). Eating is not currently served, but I know at one point it was. However, you can bring out food that is beautiful! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Journeys:

This review is for the food only. Grabbed dinner here and was not too impressed with the food unfortunately.

Although I didn't get a drink here, the food just doesn't seem to be fit for wine. For example, grilled cheese sandwiches? But it's a really cozy place to be in although it is kinda small indoors. On a good day though, there are plenty of outdoor seating. read more. In Journeys in Portland, they prepare tasty pizza using a time-honored method, served straight out of the oven, Particularly with the bite-sized Tapas, you can't absolutely nothing wrong, because there is something for all tastes. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub provides a diverse selection of delicious and local alcoholic options, be it beer or wine, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
