Connecticut will allow for weddings and other social events with up to six people indoors and up to 200 outdoors as of March 19, Gov. Ned Lamont said Tuesday.

Lamont said he plans to announce Thursday a similar loosening of restrictions on attendance at sporting events and would continue to seek further changes in the coming weeks. The measures announced Tuesday, as well as any to come, will depend on continued positive trends in Connecticut's COVID-19 cases, hospitalizations,

We used Delicacy Catering for our 150 person wedding and we couldn't be happier. It's hard to keep prepared food hot but not dry or overcooked for hours, but these guys have it figured out. We got the chicken in cream sauce, pork with blueberries, root veg smash, and two different sides of vegetables. Everything was perfectly cooked green beans still had a little crunch the pork was tender. They are meticulous, and o... read more. An additional service offered by the restaurant is the catering service for guests, Furthermore, the drinks list in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive assortment of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. Even South American fresh fish, meat, as well as beans and rice are grilled here, and you have the opportunity to try scrumptious American meals like Burger or Barbecue.
