The college kids in my family introduced me to this place and I suggest it as the place to go if you have a large group. We had 7 of us and the prices were very reasonable. The atmosphere was on point and our servers were top of the line. You get to pick your own style of noodles and believe me, there are a lot of options. No one goes away hungry. We also had a few different appetizers and it was worth the money. Eco... read more.
