Life is slower up here, and you need to adjust. When we come here we're not in a rush and we have nowhere to go—and everytime its fabulous. The service is fast and they leave you alone. They always bring a pot of coffee for us adults and we sip on it while we talk to our kids. Everything is done well and typical greasy spoon. The hash browns are crispy, the French toast is flavorful, and the omelette are cheesy. You'... read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its visitors. What Cassie doesn't like about Birchwood Cafe:

We came into the place with 5 tables that hadnt been cleaned yet....making it difficult to find a spot to sit. Then we watched while 2 parties that came in after us had their orders in before us! The food was good and price reasonable but again every person had to wait 10 minutes at the cash register for an employee to check them out! read more.
