my first time here and it was such a great experience. the food was very fresh and delicious. Beyond that, our server and pretty much all employees with the menu were very knowledgeable. every time the courts came out, the server would explain each court product. great ambiente! I think the only case is that the seats were very tight and close to other guests. on the flip side they ask for proof of vaccine and ID. th... read more. Not sure if it was just this location but I usually love Sugarfish. This experience was not what I remember. We ordered the Don't Think Just Eat, and a few pieces of the nigiri and the sashimi starter had a ponzu type sauce on it and they drowned those dishes in sauce. Too much. The rice was falling apart under all of the nigiri we received which made it hard to eat with chopsticks. The service was strange in that I... read more. For those who want to a beer after work and hang out with friends, Sugarfish By Sushi Nozawa from Los Angeles is a good bar, and easily digestible Japanese meals are being made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat.

The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Sugarfish By Sushi Nozawa. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known menus too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients enjoy, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a wide selection of beers from the region and the whole world.
