The atmosphere and setting is a big draw to this place. Because while the food was ok, I think it's a bit overpriced for the quality. I had the alfredo with chicken and it was very very soupy. And only about 5 slivers of dried out chicken. Our server was super nice and attentive and made visit enjoyable. One last note would be to have better ventilation for the smoke and heat. I brought my family from Texas and they... read more.
