We were looking for a relaxed place to have an early dinner and this Village Inn site was just what we hoped.

The host was polite and sat quickly. Serving staff quickly took our drink order. A little slower to take our food order, but it was one of only 2 servers we could see during the time. All in all, we were very satisfied with the service and the food was great. We would recommend this Village Inn location. read more. What User doesn't like about Village Inn:

the food was actually pretty decent. mashed potatoes said redskin mashed but regular mashed were served. meatloaf could have been warmer, our salads came the same time as our meal but all that really was ok. service was good but she didn't come back to ask about desert (and who doesn't get desert at the village inn? our check was dropped when our meals came but oh well. my wife like the pot pie read more.
