What User doesn't like about Casa Blanca: Service was lacking. There was one other table eating when we walked in, and maybe 6 people at the bar. We only got chips and salsa AFTER a big party walked in and got their chips asap. Our server checked on us once. She hurriedly dropped off our bill and didn't even ask if we wanted dessert, to go boxes or anything. My boyfriend had to ask for a box for his food when he went to pay the bill. He had to ask the guy 3x... read more. The Casa Blanca originating from Atlanta serves various flavorful seafood dishes, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied assortment of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
