Chicken is usually good (rare occasion of bad cooking) and the sides are all on par with the other chicken places at a much better price. The rolls are great. I can't comment on the inside buffet. Problem with this location is that they always have a line. Not because it's so popular but because it takes 20+ minutes for 3 cars to go through the drivethru. Super slow service. This is everytime I come without exception... read more.
