The Mill Room is the perfect destination for Valentine's Day! From the moment we arrived, our waitress Ovi gave us the most hospitality and service. Most importantly, the place is cute yet elegant and food was cooked for perfection. No picture was a steak actually boiled medium rare, juice and delicate. Formed are appetizer bread and herbal butter, chicken with dirty grotto and stuff croissants. With their special Va... read more. What User doesn't like about The Mill Room:

The physical space is nice, our waitress was competent, the food was average. I had high expectations, but will not return. Several items on the drink menu were not available which could have been communicated prior to making an order. Our party of 7 were seated at a table that might have accommodated 6 comfortably. When you pay top dollar for a meal you should get much more than the Mill Room provided. read more. If you're craving for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: delicious meals, cooked with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, The customers prefer especially flavorful juices. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, tasty vegetarian menus are also on the menu available.
