What User likes about Bonfire Restaurant Country Bar Manchester: After a walk Ivory St the funny butt plugs caught my children's attention and that's where they had to eat. The weather was cool during our visit, so the front windows were opened, so we ate in the window and sit in the back stools. Some of the tables inside have bank swings that also see fun. The hostess and waitress were super nice with our children. The only service complaint we had was the waitress very busy, so... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Bonfire Restaurant Country Bar Manchester:

Country Vibe, great! Bar delicate Paige, super friendly and attentive. Games down, so funny. Eat, terrible! We expected more of a farm kitchen. The pizza crust was overcooked and chewing, the pommes had more salt than potato and the burger was overcooked and came with the wrong supplement. We're probably going back, but just for a drink. read more. Crispy pizza is baked fresh at Bonfire Restaurant Country Bar Manchester in Manchester using a traditional method, The barbecued food is freshly cooked here on an open flame.
