Clean environment for a cancer spot. Came on a Saturday night and they were underoccupied as the restaurant was full and there were only 3 or 4 servers throughout the restaurant. We sat when the host was not present. We ordered crust fish and the spicy spice was great mixed with lots of garlic butter with potatoes, mushrooms, sausage and corn. The cancers were tiny in the middle of the cancer season, which was disapp... read more.

What User doesn't like about Deckhand Oyster Seafood:

Papaya salad shocked me through fermented crab source, not like smell and taste. And we went to Oyster, but they don't offer grilled or baked oysters, so ordered shimmering. Baked food and service ok. read more. The
