Breakfast at DDs was a wonderful experience. We were pleasantly surprised when they offered rye bread for toast. It is rare to see it offered today. We were even more surprised when they asked us how we want our gravitation for cookies and gravy. Cream or sausage? The breakfast buffet was very good. Buttery top and flak, but deliciously warm and dense on the inside. The eggs were right. Not broken and not hard. The w... read more.

I'm not hungry anymore, I need to have tea and salad. I hope the food is worth it. I'd complain, but my husband wouldn't say anything. I'm ashamed of him. But I don't really give a shit. It's 541 a.m. our order to 415. My other family members just got their food, I'm still waiting for my onions.

Wait here almost 6:00. Shoot when I get back to this place. It took a lon... read more.
