Our boss was excellent. He first prepared my food with gluten-free soy sauce so that my food was not contaminated with gluten from the rest of the food. He also held a metal bowl over the liver (other people ordered) while cooked, so that we do not see or smell raw liver while cooking. Our food was very good and our order was right. The cook was also very entertaining. The service seemed a little slow, but the restau... read more. What User doesn't like about Makoto's Japanese Steak House And Sushi:

For the price you pay, you expect high quality! I felt that I did not get this experience in taste or at the Hibachi grill. Soup tasted like Campbell's chicken broth, the vegetables and fillet were fine, but almost artificial tasting.

Finally, my view of the grill was pampered by the huge bottles in the way. I can be pampered by my Hibachi Steakhouse in my hometown, so take a grain salt. read more.
